

2017-18 CONSENT TO PUBLISH

Dear Parent(s):

Each year our school contracts with a professional publisher for the annual yearbook. The yearbook traditionally includes individual photographs of students accompanied by their names.

State law requires that you be given the opportunity to decide if you do not wish your child's photograph to be used and identified in the annual yearbook.

Federal Law (No Child Left Behind Act) requires that you receive the opportunity to decide if you do not wish the name of your child to be given to United States military recruiters. Recruiters will be given access to your child unless you check the box telling us not to provide their name.

New Vista School needs to know if you give permission for us to publish your child's photo in any promotional materials produced by the school through their marketing efforts. For the protection of our students, we will not identify them in the photo by name.

For marketing materials, New Vista School would like the opportunity to publish written or verbal quote(s) made by a parent or student as to the student's success at the school and the satisfaction of the education your child is receiving.

Please initial below where applicable.
